

WORK INTENT

The Six Aspirations

Fascination with Body and metabolic detail	Fascination with Emotion or attraction/repulsion	Fascination with Mind or winning at manipulation	Fascination with Community or social conscience	Fascination with Annihilation or divestment of conditional motive	Fascination with Going On or seeing things as they are and giving everything it's due

Worker
Work to buy the nice things I want. Work to have a career/future Work to show them that you are worth something. Compete	Work to provide for the family. (PPC 'Better life for all') Work to be a member of the team Work because what we do makes the world a better place.	Work as sacrifice to make the world a better place. Work is the escape from the burden of making the world a better place. Work is the opportunity to disappear into process or to focus on means rather than ends.	Work is the grateful dance of a full heart. I work ingratitude for what I have received, not in order to get anything.
Supervisor
My people are a purely a means to the end of securing my own job security and career advancement	We either hang together or are hung separately. Loyalty above all. My job as a coach is to get the team to cover for each other. 'Help jou Maatjie'.	Justice at all costs. They can fire me but I will not be bullied to do what is not right.	Working is an opportunity to see how extraordinary my people are.
Manager
My people are a purely a means to the end of securing my own job security and career advancement. My colleagues are the enemy	We all bow to the god of synergy. My colleagues are my friends.	I don't give a damn about colleagues, friends or subordinates. I care about what is right.	Working gives me an opportunity to see how things spontaneously come together despite me.
Executive
Money and power at all costs. Business is about making some money for shareholders and lots for executives.	What we do is worth while to our customers. We will sacrifice the individual for the collective.	We will loose the enterprise before we compromise what is right. We are in this business to mature souls	Working gives me an opportunity to see how things spontaneously come together despite me. 'Gone Fishing' sign often on door.

1. I am viewing the intent of the worker as the base from which the others derive.
2. For the worker the first 3 categories have a range themselves, normal being the left of the range, italics the middle and bold the right.
